OPENS IN NORWALK

THIS AFTERNOON

Of all the freak remedies that are sometimes proposed for sick house plants those which are recommended for rubber plants are the worst. They run all the way from applying beef-steak and castor oil to the roots to coating the leaves with milk. Give your lants a properly prepared soil and officient light and keep the leaves free from dust and scale, and you will find no necessity for such nostrums as these. Make it a practice to go over the plants daily with a soft cloth and remove any indication of dust, scale or nsects.--Country Life In America.

Leonard G. Abell Tried to Get Through a Small Place and Is Tossed Back With Severe Injuries.

Riderless Wheel Continued On Its Way and Smashed Up a Tailor's Sign-After Wiping Wounds the Plucky Cyclist Rode Away for a Doctor.

Leonard G. Abell, 281 Cannon St., clerk in the employ of the railroad company collided with a truck team while riding a motor cycle at high speed through Middle street this noon speed through Middle street this noon. He escaped with a severe jarring, two deep cuts under his chin and an abrasion on the chin. The machine he was riding escaped with a bent mudguard, and a twisted crank shaft. After colliding with the pole of the truck Abell struck upon his head against the brick pavement and although dazed did not lose consciousness. Abell was riding his wheel toward the north and the driver of a truck belonging to Henry Hanson of 62 Winter street turned to go into an alleyway leading to the rear of The Smith Comstock's Water street store. Abell thought the driver was going to back toward the west curb and he tried to pass beneath the noses of the horses. The horses took a step forward and the pole raked the rider from the wheel, hurling him prostrate upon the pavement. The motor cycle with the engine running rushed ahead riderless for a few feet on a bee line for the open door of a barber shop. But it brought up with a smash against the dilapidated curb sign of "N. Packson, Tailor," 26 Middle street, smashing it into smithereens.

After collecting himself and wiping the blood from cuts in his chin Abell found that the motors of his wheel were in working order and he pluckily mounted and said be would go to his doctor and have the wounds stitched together.

Deaths and Funerals

Funeral services over the remains of Ada C., wife of Fred S. Hart, were held, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock from her late residence, 220 Mountain Grove Street, Rev. Emory Parks, pastor of Grace M. E. Church officiating. The church quartette sang "The Homeland," "Lead Kindly Light" and "House of Many Mansions." The remains were taken to Holyoke, Mass., for burial on the 10:44 train to-day for burial.

Many sorrowing friends attended the funeral this morning of Mrs. Bridget Flanagan, widow of Thomas McGarry, from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Edward Russell, 48 Main street, Southport, at 8 o'clock, and from St. Thomas' church at 9. where Rev. Joseph Desaulniers sang a high mass of requiem. The pail bearers, nephews of the deceased, were Edward, William and James Flanagan, and John Russell. The interment was in St. Thomas' cemetery, Fairfield.

The funeral of Thomas Walden, at one time coachman for Tom Thumb, took place this afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Rourke & Rourke, 1295 Main street, at 2:30. The services were largely attended by former associates. The expenses were born by friends who responded liberally to subscriptions prepared by Frederick H. Squires, Walden's employer, and Alfred Stevenson, grocer of 54 Harrai avenue, who was a friend of years. The interment was at Mountain Grove cemetery.

HAINS IN HANDS OF JURY

Dealt With Law as to Responsibility of Insane Man and How Far Insanity Must Be Proven for Verdict of Not Guilty.

(Special from United Press.) Flushing, L. I., May 11.—The fate of Captain Peter C. Hains, who has been on trial for three weeks for the murder of William E. Annis, is in the Blood from hands of the jury. Special Prosecutor Gregg finished his summing up within an hour after court convened today and Judge Garretson at once began his charge which was, for the most part, decidedly technical, dealing with the law as to the responsibility of an insane man and showing to what extent insanity must be proven before a verdict of not guilty could be ren-werdlet of not guilty could be rendered.

While the general belief is that the jury will fail to agree, counsel for both sides profess to be very confident that a verdict in their favor will be returned. If the jury should acquit it is expected that Justice Garretson will at once commit Captain Hains to the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan. He will open the way for a new legal battle as in that event the captain's counsel says he will at once appeal to have the captain turned over to the Federal authorities and committed to the army asylum at Washington for treatment. This will be opposed by District Attorney DeWitt who will insist on a Matteawan commitment. The charge of Judge Garretson was satisfactory to both sides.

OF CAPTAIN HOUSEMAID RIDER TACKED ON TO LABOR BILL

Charge of Judge Garretson If This Amendment Should Become Law People Employing Servants Must Give Them One Day a Week Off, With Only 10 Hours Work a Day-Other Business Done By House.

> (Special from United Press.) Hartford, May 11 .- Considerable of sensation was created at the capitol to-day when it was learned that a housemaid amendment to the labor bill, which was introduced at the instigation of the Consumers' League of Connecticut, is to be offered at the hearing before the committee on labor

The amendment to this bill is to the effect that housemaids shall not work more than 10 hours a day and not more than 60 hours a week. The bill as it now stands before the committee covers the cases of all women and minors who are employed in any mercantile establishment and specifically mentions laundries, hotels, confectionery stores and it is said only excluded the housemaids. The amendment, if it becomes a law, according to information given out to-day, would compel people employing servants in their homes to give them one day a week off and to work them not more than 10 hours in any one day.

Because of the sweeping scope of this bill, it is expected that the hearing to-morrow before the committee on labor will be one of the largest of the session. effect that housemaids shall not work

The House of Representatives to-day fixed Thursday, May 27th, as the day for the joint convention of the House and Senate to hear eulogies on the late Governor Lilley. After a resolution providing for this had passed the House Representatives Burnes of Greenwich and Tingier of Rockville were appointed a committee to inform the Senate of the action of the House and later reported back that this date was agreeable to the Senate.

The House received a large number of reports, favorable and unfavorable this morning.

BY MOTOR CAR

Machine Drawn by J. W. C. Bullard Runs Into Sammy Hoffler and Bruises Him Severely.

Sammy Hoffler, 14 years old, living with his parents at 207 Spruce street, was struck by a motor car operated by J. W. C. Bullard of 152 Park Place, on Fairfield avenue near Harrison street, this afternoon. The boy was badly bruised and sustained a scalp wound in the accident. He was taken to the emergency hospital where Dr. Krause dressed his wounds. He was able to go to his home without assistance.

Mr. Bullard took the boy in another motor car to the hospital and reported to police headquarters. He said that he was going west on Fairfield avenue when the boy, riding his bicycle, dodged out from behind a trolley car and ran into his machine. He asserted that his car was moving slowly at the time and that the boy appeared in front of him before he had time to blow his horn or avoid the collision.

The boy asserts that he was on the right side of the street when he was hit. He says he was riding east on Fairfield avenue when Bullard's car appeared from behind the trolley car and ran him down. Some of the spectators say the boy's story is correct, while other endorse Mr. Bullard's statement.

Wanted for a Murderous Assault

It is believed in this city that Jim Phillips and Peter Frank, two Armen-ians arrested last night for assault, are ians arrested last night for assault, are wanted for an atrocious assault at South Framingham, about three weeks ago, when the proprietor of the Albanian restaurant in that city was almost disembowled and another man lost four fingers of his right hand. The South Framingham murderers were known as Asan and Patro. They left the city immediately after the assault on the restaurant keeper and went to New York. They came to this city two weeks ago. This information has been in the hands of the police for several days. The murder, if it has resulted in the death of the victim was deliberate.
